UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

DARI ISAIAS PEREIRA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

RENTOKIL INC. d/b/a WESTERN PEST CONTROL; a Nevada Business; DOES I through X, inclusive, and ROE BUSINESS ENTITIES I through X, inclusive,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:19-cv-01927

STIPULATION AND ORDER TO CONTINUE EARLY NEUTRAL
EVALUATION

The parties to this case, by and through their respective counsel of record, HEREBY STIPULATE AND AGREE to continue the Early Neutral Evaluation (“ENE”) session set for February 3, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. pursuant to the Court’s November 6, 2019 Order (ECF. No. 7).

The parties request that the ENE session be continued to March 27, 2020 at 9:30 a.m.

This stipulation is not made for the purpose of delay. Rather, several reasons exist demonstrating why the requested continuance is for good cause. First, General Counsel for Defendant Rentokil North America, Inc., incorrectly named as Rentokil Inc. d/b/a Western Pest Control, wishes to attend the ENE but will be travelling to Nevada from out of state and requires a different date. Second, due to the fact that the ENE is currently set for a date already outside the required 90-day deadline outlined in LR 16-6(d), the extension would not on its own petition the Court to venture outside any deadlines set by the Local Rules. Lastly, the parties have already confirmed with the Magistrate Judge's Judicial Assistant the Court's availability to conduct the ENE on March 27, 2020—which is one of the earliest dates the Court has available and only a few short weeks after the currently-scheduled ENE. As such, the proposed extension, should the Court grant it, would not over congest the Court's calendar, but rather, allow the ENE to be conducted within a reasonable timeframe and resolve any unnecessary scheduling conflicts with the parties.

Accordingly, based on the aforementioned reasons, the parties request the Court find that they have shown good cause to continue the ENE session to March 27, 2020 at 9:30 a.m.
